About This Content

This soundtrack contains 35 beautiful original scores composed by Rourkie Daniels, including bonus tracks that didn't make it into the game, as well as a special insert containing insight into the composition process. The tracks are DRM free, and in MP3 format and in non-looped versions for your listening pleasure.

To locate the DLC please follow these instructions: Right-click (Ctrl+Click on Mac) The Pirate's Fate in your library, then select Properties>Local Files>Browse Local Files.

*Special Note: 6 tracks from the game are not included. Additional music was composed by Ebunny, Tim Beek, and Artofescapism. These tracks may be found online through Ebunny's Bandcamp page, Tim Beek's personal website, and Artofescapism's Free Music Archive page.

WASTE OF TIME

MAYBE WE'LL GET LUCKY

Leeko

So, how are you enjoying your first aimless tavern crawl...sorry, I meant, 'highly productive reconnaissance mission?'

The music for this game was one of the best parts for me. It sets theme wonderfully and is great example of what you can do with synth. Listening it to the first time I kept saying things like, "Huh, why is this next song called 'It Will All Be Okay'? ... ... OH YEAH *THIS* SONG THAT IS TOTALLY WHAT THAT IS."

It's probably not going to have that effect for you if you didn't like the game. But if you did then this is a fantastic addition.. After having gotten the game and the Comic, from having funded the Kickstarter last year, and spending nearly 100 hours on it, revisiting things over and over, I decided, this morning, to take advantage of a Steam Sale to pick up the Soundtrack and Art book.

Having done so, I have to say, I love the music in the game. The different tracks are great, and my favorite track is called 'Leeko The Great' which, when I found out, made a lot of sense to me, because Leeko is my favorite character in the story.

If you find that you enjoy the game and love the music, then I highly recommend picking up the soundtrack. It's definitely nice to have in the background while I'm doing other things. You will not be sorry. I know I wasn't..
